

Parent/Guardian Rights

Policy:

A parent has primary responsibility for the education of his/her child; the state is in a secondary and supportive role to parents. A parent has the right to reasonable academic accommodations from The Ranches Academy. The Ranches Academy will make a determination of what is reasonable based Utah Code Ann. 53A-15-1501(2)(a) and (b).

The Ranches Academy shall make its best effort to enable parents to exercise their rights without substantial impact to staff and resources. Impact to staff and resources includes, but is not limited to; employee working conditions, safety and supervision on school premises and for school activities, and the efficient allocation of expenditures.

In accommodating a parent request, The Ranches Academy will balance the following: the rights of parents, the educational needs of other students, the academic and behavioral impacts to a classroom, a teacher's workload, and the assurance of the safe and efficient operation of a school.

The Ranches Academy will consider each accommodation on an individual basis. All accommodations will be considered equally, however, students with IEPs, in accordance with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 (IDEA), 20 U.S.C., 1400, or Section 504 accommodation plans, in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. 794, whose parents have requested accommodations, consistent with the students' plans, will receive appropriate accommodations.

Parents' Rights:

The Ranches Academy will make its best efforts to allow parents to exercise the rights below but may deny a request for accommodations that; substantially impacts staff and resources, or infringes on the educational needs of other students, the academic and behavioral impacts to a classroom, a teacher's workload, and the assurance of the safe and efficient operation of a school. In addition, changes to services and placement must be made in accordance with the IEP process for students with disabilities under IDEA.

Parents have the right to have reasonable accommodations for their students by The Ranches Academy as stated below:

- Pursuant to a written request, to have a student retained based on the student's academic ability or the student's social, emotional, or physical maturity.

- Pursuant to a written request, to excuse a student from attendance for a family event or visit a health care provider without requiring a note from the provider. The Ranches Academy may require a student to complete make-up work missed due to an absence excused for a family event. The Ranches Academy may offer positive incentives for students to attend school.
- Pursuant to a written request, to place a student in a specialized class or advance course, based on multiple academic points.
- Pursuant to a written request, to initially request a teacher.
- Pursuant to a written request, to request a change of teacher.
- With notice, to visit and observe any class the student attends.
- To meet with a teacher at a mutually agreeable time, other than regular parent/teacher conferences.

The Ranches Academy will:

- Pursuant to a written request, excuse a student from taking a statewide or NAEP testing.

The parental rights above do not include all rights that may be available to parents.

Notice to Parents and Students:

This policy serves as notice to parents of their rights under Utah Code §53A-15-1502. The Ranches Academy will distribute the school's Conduct and Discipline Policy to students (including to students enrolled for the first time). Parents will be notified and provided with an opportunity to acknowledge receipt of The Ranches Academy discipline and conduct policy and will notify a parent of a student's violation of the discipline and conduct policy, and allow a parent to respond to the notice in accordance with Chapter 11, Part 9, School Discipline and Conduct Plans.
